

Indian Chess School's 150-Hour Developmental Chess Training Program-I

Beginning 01st January 2010, Indian Chess School has launched a 150-hour Developmental-I Chess Training Program for players for players who wish to achieve Chess excellence. The details are as under:

Trainers & Curriculum:

The training curriculum, incorporating the most modern training methods, has been designed by FI Praful Zaveri.

Training Schedule:

The 150-hour training program is spread over 12-months as under.

Wednesdays	06.00 to 07.30 PM
Fridays	06.00 to 07.30 PM

The normal training schedule is 12-hours per month + extensive training of 30-hours during holidays.

Tournament Exposure:

Each of the trainees would be required to play at least 25 classical Tournament games at the State, National, FIDE Rated and International events.

Thus, if we are to work out the average playing time for 1-game as 4-hours, the trainees would get an exposure of 100 hours of extremely competitive chess!!

Computer Preparation:

Indian Chess School would be using the most modern methods of chess training. The lectures would be projected on a big 5 x 5 ft screen using Projector!! Trainees would be provided with e-notes on each of the training chapter and the training games played by them would also be analyzed.

Classroom Facility:

Indian Chess School would be offering the best of classroom facility to each of the trainees. The trainee would have an entire 4 x 2 ft Chess table with a Chess Set, Chess Clock and a place to use Laptop Computer.

Batch Size:

The Batch size would be limited to 12-trainees. The small batch size would facilitate individual attention on all the trainees

Course Fee:

The total course fee for this Chess Training Program is Rs.18000/- payable as under:

4 Quarterly Payments of Rs.1500/- each by way of Cheque favoring 'Indian Chess School'

Enrollment Procedure:

Those interested in joining this Developmental Chess Training - I Program are required to submit the enrollment form duly completed in all respects.

Contact Details:

Parents//Guardians of the prospective trainee may contact FI Praful Zaveri, Director of Indian Chess School for further details:

Tele-fax: +91-22-298918477
Mobile: +91-9820547548 (SMS Preferred)
E-mail: info@indianchessschool.com

Training Centre:
C/O Bima Nagar Education Society,
Opp. Shanti Ashram Bus Depot,
Borivali (West), Mumbai – 400103.