

Indian Chess School's 300-Hour Developmental Chess Training Program-II

Besides the Comprehensive Chess Training Program, beginning 01st January 2010, Indian Chess School is also launching a 300-hour Developmental Chess Training Program-II for players who wish to achieve Chess excellence. The details are as under:

Trainers & Curriculum:

The training curriculum, incorporating the most modern training methods, has been designed by FI Praful Zaveri.

Training Schedule:

The 300-hour training program is spread over 12-months as under.

Tuesdays	06.00 to 08.30 PM
Saturdays	06.00 to 08.30 PM

The normal training schedule is 20-hours per month + extensive training of 60-hours during holidays.

Tournament Exposure:

Each of the trainees would be required to play at least 50-classical Tournament games at the State, National, FIDE Rated and International events.

Thus, if we are to work out the average playing time for 1-game as 4-hours, the trainees would get an exposure of 200 hours of extremely competitive chess!!

Computer Preparation:

Indian Chess School would be using the most modern methods of chess training. The lectures would be projected on a big 5 x 5 ft screen using Projector!! Trainees would be provided with e-notes on each of the training chapter and the training games played by them would also be analyzed.

Classroom Facility:

Indian Chess School would be offering the best of classroom facility to each of the trainees. The trainee would have an entire 4 x 4 ft Chess table with a Chess Set, Chess Clock and a place to use Laptop Computer.

Batch Size:

The Batch size would be limited to just 10-trainees. The small batch size would facilitate individual attention on all the trainees
